Filibuster Threat Hits Legislation in Illinois House

U. S. Officials Surprised at Editor's Report

11 Were Sentenced To 4 to 10 Year Terms by Communists

MANILA (AP)—The release of the 11 American airmen still imprisoned in Red China is expected within the next 24 hours, the managing director of the influential Times of India said tonight.

The Indian editor, J. C. Jain, who arrived here by air from Hong Kong, said his information on the probable early release of the American fliers came "from a source that is usually reliable."

In Washington, officials expressed surprise at Jain's forecast. They hoped the report was true but there was nothing to indicate that the United States had been alerted to receive the prisoners at Hong Kong.

Four American jet pilots released earlier this week by Red China regained freedom at Hong Kong on last Tuesday.

"I was informed in Hong Kong," Jain said, "that 11 more fliers would be released, possibly within the next 24 hours."

The Indian editor appeared surprised that local newsmen had not received similar reports.

He declined to give any additional information but did say he "believed" the other 11 airmen were the ones tried and convicted by Red China of "espionage" and now serving long prison terms.

Jain said the release of the four fliers on Tuesday, after more than two years in Red Chinese jails was "a good gesture."

The 11 men whose release he said is likely in the very near future were sentenced last November to terms of from 4 to 10 years in Communist prisons.

The 11 airmen still held in China are: Maj. William H. Baumer, Lewisburg, Pa.; Airman 1.C. Steve R. Kiba, Akron, Ohio; Airman 2.C. John W. Thompson, Ill.; Orange, Va.; Capt. Eugene J. Vaadi, Clayton, N. Y.; Col. John K. Arnold Jr., Montgomery, Ala.; Lt. Wallace L. Brown, Montgomery, Ala.; Lt. John W. Buck, Armathwaite, Tenn.; Airman 2.C. Harry M. Benjamin Jr., Worthington, Minn.; Sgt. Howard W. Brown, St. Paul, Minn.; Capt. Elmer F. Llewellyn, Missoula, Mont.; and Airman 2.C. Daniel C. Schmidt, Boise, Idaho.

In Missoula, Mont., Llewellyn's young wife said only today that her husband's last letter seemed "very optimistic of getting out soon" and promised "we'll have our Christmas in June."

Marion Man is Fatally Injured at Will Scarlett Mine

First fatality at the Stonefort Corporation's Will Scarlett coal mine near Stonefort occurred this morning when an employee from Marion met his death.

He was William Shotton, 31 years old, a truck driver, who was killed when a cable caught him around the waist.

It was reported that the mine was idle today and that Shotton was helping with the repair of the big shovel at the stripping operation. A winch line apparently broke or came off, it was stated, catching Shotton around the middle.

Death was nearly instantaneous, it was stated.

The accident occurred in Williamson county and Sam Simmons, coroner of that county, was to make an investigation at the scene. The body had not been moved to a funeral home shortly before noon.

New Methodist Minister At Carrier Mills Church

Rev. Carl Davis, new minister of the Carrier Mills First Methodist church, arrived in Carrier Mills this week and will hold his first services in the church there Sunday.

Rev. Davis was transferred from Karnak and he and his family have moved into the parsonage on North Main street.

Rev. Homer Herrin, pastor at Carrier Mills Methodist church for the past several years, has been transferred to Ashley-Beaucoup and he and Mrs. Herrin left for their new home Tuesday.

Two Air Force Men Killed in Crash Of Light Plane

MOUND CITY, S. D. (AP)—Two Air Force men, one of whom escaped death in a plane mishap earlier this year, were killed Thursday when their light plane crashed near here.

The victims were 2nd Lt. Myron E. Farb, 21, St. Louis, and Sgt. Donald L. Chapman, Sioux City, Iowa. Both were stationed at the Sioux Falls, S. D., air filter center.

The crash occurred as the two men were testing a plane which they planned to buy from Campbell County State's Atty. Robert Slocum.

Farb had a close brush with death Feb. 13 while flying as a radar observer aboard an air force F34 jet. He lost radio contact with the plane's pilot and, thinking the plane was about to crash, bailed out over Canton, S. D.

He was injured when he crashed through the plastic canopy of the cockpit, but his parachute opened in time to save him. Rescue crews later picked him up.

Senate Passes Foreign Aid Measure, 59-18

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's $3,408,000,000 foreign aid program today faced new hurdles in the House Foreign Affairs Committee, particularly on aid to Yugoslavia.

The Senate passed the bill 59-18 Thursday after beating down attempts to reduce the program and to require that economic aid be mostly in the form of loans. Only 7 Democrats and 11 Republicans voted against it on final passage.

The House committee resumes hearings on the bill Wednesday with testimony from foreign aid chief Harold E. Stassen.

A joint communique issued Thursday in Belgrade by Yugoslavia and Russia supporting Red China's claim to Formosa touched off fresh attacks in the committee against aid to Yugoslavia.

Rep. John M. Vorys (R-Ohio) said the communique was a "tip-off" that Marshall Tito was lining up "squarely against us and the United Nations which have voted that Red China was an aggressor."

Before voting on the aid program, Vorys said, "we'll want to get direct word from our people in Yugoslavia."

Vorys said the committee would trim the bill but the cuts, if any, were not expected to be drastic. Chairman James P. Richards (D-S.C.) has predicted the committee will give Mr. Eisenhower pretty much what he wants to help strengthen his hand at the forthcoming Big Four talks with Russia.

Rail Strike Causes Creeping Economic Paralysis in Britain

LONDON (AP)—A creeping economic paralysis gripped Britain today with factories closing down and unemployment growing in a chain reaction to the nationwide strike by railroad workers.

The strike by 7,000 engineers and firemen, now in its sixth day, forced six West steel mills to halt production. Other factories cut working hours for lack of essential materials or because finished products could not be moved.

An attempt by organized labor to mediate the dispute broke down in defeat Thursday night. A spokesman for the Trades Union Congress, parent body of British unions, said "no progress has been made" in prolonged negotiation sessions with leaders of the striking Associated Society of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen (ASLEF).

Prime Minister Anthony Eden summoned his cabinet to another emergency session to seek a way out of the stalemate.

Mrs. John Yandell Dies at Elizabethtown

Mrs. Clara Gullett Yandell, 73, wife of John Yandell, died at her home in Elizabethtown Thursday at 11 a. m.

The body at present is at the Barnett funeral home and will be taken this afternoon to the residence.

Funeral services will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. at the Elizabethtown Baptist church where she was a member. Rev. Carl Watkins will officiate, and burial will be in the Odd Fellows cemetery.

Freed Airmen, Families Enjoy Hawaii Reunion

Fliers Questioned By Intelligence On Months of Captivity

HONOLULU, T. H. (AP)—America's 13 happiest people—four freed American fliers and their families—assured themselves today their storybook reunion is no dream.

They shopped, they went night-clubbing, they made plans to go swimming and sightseeing, but best of all they enjoyed the freedom of talking and laughing with one another.

Only occasionally were the fliers reminded of their imprisonment in Red China and Communist "brain-washing" attempts.

Air Force officials interrupted the reunion now and then so that the fliers could "fulfill their requirements." The requirements apparently meant answering questions by intelligence officers about their months of captivity behind the Bamboo Curtain.

The fliers disclosed after their return Wednesday that they had pleaded guilty to violating Red China's air space, and hinted they may also have signed some papers for the Chinese prior to their trial.

A Dream Come True

But for now, Judith Heller, wife of Lt. Col. Edwin L. Heller, of Wynnewood, Pa., said it for all of them with:

"It is really a dream come true. I am now queen for all eternity."

The reunion began Thursday when a plane landed at Hickam Field and the nine relatives, laughing and crying, came tumbling down the gangplank to embrace the four fliers.

The four fliers, expelled from Communist China only last Tuesday, besides Heller, are Capt. Harold Fischer, Sweta City, Iowa; 1st Lt. Lyle Cameron, Lincoln, Neb., and 1st Lt. Roland Parks of Omaha.

Their relatives were Mrs. Hel-

Death Takes Geo. F. Harbison, 69; Funeral Sunday

George F. Harbison, 69, a retired miner and carpenter, died yesterday at 11 p. m. in the Lightner hospital where he had been a patient for the past three weeks. He had been ill for a year suffering from uremic poisoning.

Mr. Harbison was born in Galatin county Sept. 5, 1885, the son of the late J. M. and Nancy T. Harbison. He married the former Cora Dennison who survives him.

Also surviving are a daughter, Georgia Harbison who is teaching school in Decatur, a son, Jesse Harbison, Hobart, Ind., and a grandson, George Edward Harbison; and the following brothers and sisters: James J. Harbison, Palacios, Tex.; J. C. Harbison, Eldorado, W. B. Harbison, Herod, Mrs. Aelinor Church, Bay City, Tex.; Mrs. Ethel Jensen, Palacios, Tex.

He was a member of the McKinley Avenue Baptist church.

Funeral services will be held Sunday at 2:30 p. m. at the Jones church south of Equality. Rev. J. D. McCarty will officiate, and burial will be in the Jones cemetery.

The body will be taken from the Harrisburg funeral home to the residence, 1032 Roosevelt, today at 6 p. m.

Boy, 14, Runs Into Burning House to Save Life of Owner

BRAIDWOOD, Ill. (AP)—Fourteen-year-old Ronald Foreman ran into a burning house Thursday and saved the life of his owner.

Foreman was walking by the home of Waldo Bergman, 34, when he heard screams and saw smoke and flames. He dashed inside and emerged with the severely burned Bergman.

Bergman had fallen asleep and was too dazed when he awoke to escape.

Eisenhower Flies To Gettysburg Farm In Small Plane

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower flew to his Gettysburg, Pa., farm today in a small twin-engine plane, the first President in history to fly in less than a four engine craft.

Mr. Eisenhower had flown in smaller planes before he became President but not since he was inaugurated Jan. 20, 1953.

DAILY VACATION BIBLE SCHOOLS will start in most Harrisburg churches Monday, June 6, and this morning the churches banded together to form a huge parade. The parade formed in Dorrisville, near the housing project, paraded through the city and disbanded at the corner of South Main and College streets. Leading the parade was "Chuck" Hunsinger on his white horse, followed by one of Harrisburg's fire trucks. Then came the parade proper, consisting of 44 vehicles and 25 decorated bicycles. Top photo shows a part of the parade, formed on West Barnett street, just as it began to move at 10 a. m. In lower photo are the winners in the decorated bike contest. Left to right, Charles Businaro, third, First Baptist; Frank Peas, second, Dorrisville Baptist; and Steve Frantz, first, McKinley Avenue Baptist.

Police Seek Slayer of Priest, Head of Boys Town in India

CHICAGO (AP)—Police sought a razor-wielding bandit and questioned delegates to the Rotary International convention today in their search for the killer of the "Father Flanagan of India."

The Rev. John Chiramal, 42, died Thursday of shock and loss of blood after gasping "I've been attacked, I've been robbed."

Two hours earlier he had staggered from his car to the door of the Little Sisters of the Poor shelter. A seven-inch slash ran from his heart almost to his left shoulder.

The Roman Catholic priest died in a hospital before he could tell what had happened. His only clue was that he was attacked "far away."

Police theorized that he had been stabbed as early as seven hours before his death and had managed to drive to his final destination, holding a blood-soaked shirt to his chest to stop the bleeding and steering with the other hand.

Headed India Boys Town. An inquest into the slaying was to be held today.

Father Chiramal had come to Chicago to raise funds for the Boys Town of India home he heads in the village of Kumbalangi, India. The Indian priest had modeled the home on the famed Boys Town of Nebraska, founded by the late Father Flanagan, and was known as the "Father Flanagan of India."

Catholic authorities said Father Chiramal hoped to raise money for the home from Indian delegates attending the Rotary International convention here.

Blind Vet Regains Sight During Quarrel with Wife

ST. FAITH'S, England (AP)—Peter Barr, a blinded war veteran, told today how he suddenly regained his sight during a quarrel with his wife, who he never had seen.

Barr said he was arguing violently with his wife and drove his fist into the palm of his hand to emphasize a point.

"I thought I could see the first blurred outline of her head," he told reporters today.

"Move your head, I think I can see," I said," Barr told newsmen.

"She did so. And I knew for certain then that I had regained my sight. In about 10 minutes I could see clearly."

Barr said his anger cooled quickly. "The first thing I did was kiss her. It was the first time I had ever seen her, since I was blind when we were married."

"The next thing I did was throw my white walking stick into the fire and then we went out to celebrate," Barr said.

Bill to Create Agency for Industry Goes to Stratton

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—A bill to create a state agency to work full time to bring new industry to Illinois today went to Gov. William G. Stratton's desk.

The bill was passed by the Senate Thursday and its Senate sponsor said the governor has approved the measure.

The bill was introduced in the House by Rep. Richard Stengel (D-Rock Island) and guided through the Senate by Sen. Homer Butler (R-Marion). It would create a division of industrial planning and development in the Department of Registration and Education to "operate actively" to promote new industrial development in Illinois.

Butler said 43 other states already have such agencies and Illinois has been "lagging behind" too long.

A superintendent with a salary of $8,000 a year would operate the agency.

Gov. Stratton to Order Highway Route Survey

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Gov. William G. Stratton Thursday agreed to order a route survey for a southern Illinois group seeking a federal designation for a Shawneetown-East St. Louis highway.

John D. Upchurch, Eldorado, president of the Egyptian Federal Highway Assn., reported after a meeting with the governor that Stratton agreed to the survey to determine the "shortest and most economical" route across southern Illinois.

"We believe we have that route," Upchurch said.

Recommendations will be made to state highway officials on the basis of the route survey. The state officials then would have to make recommendations to the American Association of State Highway Officials before that organization could approve federal designation for a route.

Upchurch's organization is sponsoring the extension of U. S. 58 through southern Illinois. The federal highway now runs from Virginia Beach, Va., to Middlesboro, Ky.

Kentucky already has recommended extension of the route to the Illinois border.

The Illinois route requested by the Egyptian association would run U. S. 58 over Ill. 142, 34A, 34, 152, 13, and U. S. 51 and 460. It would pass through Eldorado, Benton and Pinckneyville to East St. Louis.

The delegation that called on Stratton included Du Quoin Mayor Renos Miller, Eldorado Mayor Carl Johnson, Walter Burnett, Pinckneyville, and George Scherrer, Shawneetown.

Mrs. James Caley, Mother of Miss Gladys Caley, Dies

Mrs. Iola Caley, 76, died Thursday at 6 p. m. at her home, 109 West College.

She was born August 14, 1879, in Tazewell county, Ill., the daughter of James E. Camberling and the former Sarah Speece. On Feb. 19, 1896, she married James E. Caley, and lived in Pekin, Ill., and that vicinity the great part of her life. She had resided in Harrisburg for the past seven years.

Mrs. Caley was a member of the First Christian church and of the Order of Eastern Star at Mackinaw.

Surviving are four sons, Percy B. Caley, Pittsburgh, Pa.; William James Caley, San Marcos, Tex.; Walter Leslie Caley, Indianapolis, Ind.; and Charles Caley, Peoria, and one daughter, Miss Gladys M. Caley, Harrisburg, with whom she made her home. Also surviving are three grandchildren, one brother, Clarence Camberling, Pontiac, and a sister, Mrs. Jennie Roberson, Pekin.

The body will lie in state in the chapel of the Gaskins funeral home until 9 p. m. today at which time it will be taken to the Kuecks funeral home in Pekin. Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. at the First Christian church.

Rev. Glen Daugherty will officiate, and burial will be in Mackinaw, Ill.

Exposition Hall Measure Draws Heaviest Fire

Third Filibuster Develops Over Appropriation Bills

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—The Illinois Legislature, already nearing a state of chaos in its final month, today rammed into its strongest filibuster threat of the session.

Both sides in the House fight over the bill to give Chicago a city exposition and convention hall served notice they will filibuster—the proponents if the bill is not called, the opponents if the bill is called.

This left Speaker Warren L. Wood (R-Plainfield) with a seemingly unsolvable problem to ponder over the weekend as the Legislature adjourned until next Tuesday.

If the two "exposition hall" threats weren't enough, a third filibuster maneuver also popped up on the House floor. Rep. Robert L. Burhans (R-Peoria) objected to the passing of any more appropriation bills until new revenue measures are passed to make sure the money is available.

Burhans had no sooner agreed to drop his delaying efforts if appropriation measures were not called before next Tuesday, when the exposition hall issue came to a head.

Rep. John K. Morris (R-Chadwick), a farm leader who opposes using the pari-mutuel betting taxes that normally go to finance fairs and expositions, to build the Chicago hall, got the floor.

Morris told Wood he was filing a "dissent" to appear in the House journal serving notice that if the Chicago exposition hall bill is called again he and 17 others will "filibuster."

The filibuster method would be the classic legislative method of requiring that all bills be read in full in strict accord with the Constitution. Morris said the 17 Democrats would keep this up until the session ends July 1.

Then Rep. Paul Powell (D-Vienna), a sponsor of the exposition hall bill, told Wood he should be warned that if the bill is not called for a vote "the sponsors might require the same thing," or that all bills be read in full.

Not a single piece of major legislation has been passed by the 1955 Legislature, mostly choked in arguments over legislative reapportionment which came to a head last week. But the reap bill now is close to final passage in the Senate, expected Tuesday.

Still to be enacted is new tax legislation, major school and welfare appropriations, and new revenue and judicial articles for the constitution.

Burhans used a different method for his filibuster. When a bill to appropriate $140,000 for new sewers between Carbondale and Southern Illinois University was called, he moved that it be set over as a special order of business for debate. He said he intended to keep making such motions to delay appropriations until the tax bill are passed.

Powell Tax Bill Advances in House

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Rep. Paul Powell's (D-Vienna) strongly-backed state sales tax increase bill, a rival to the Stratton-Daley agreed bills, today was advanced to House passage stage.

The bill was advanced without amendment. It would increase the state sales tax from 2 to 3 cents for two years, earmark the increase for use equally between schools and cities, require municipalities getting the new tax revenue to decrease property taxes—by 25 per cent of the amount received from the new source in Chicago, and 50 per cent in downstate cities—and limit city use of the money to the most essential city services.

Report Peabody Merger Talks

CHICAGO (AP)—Merger talks were reported under way today between Peabody Coal Co. and another coal firm.

The Chicago Sun-Times said it was "widely reported" in financial circles that officials of Peabody and the Sinclair Southern Group were negotiating a consolidation.

Officials of the two companies could not be reached immediately for comment.

The newspaper said the Sinclair Southern Group is the nation's No. 3 coal producer and Peabody ranks about No. 8, and a merger would create "one of the nation's largest coal empires."

Fischer, who could not wait to eat his first civilian meal since before his capture, took his parents to the Royal Hawaiian Hotel on Waikiki Beach for dinner. The management picked up the check.
The others dined at the Officers Club at Hickam Field, and spent the evening talking about old times, the folks back home and future plans.
Earlier, while Heller had some dental work done, the others went on a shopping spree at Hickam. They visited the finance officer and each flier withdrew $400 of the $12,000 to $15,000 they have coming in back pay.
Then the Fischer, Cameron and Parks families went to the Post Exchange where they bought slacks, shirts, neckties, socks, shoes and expensive wallets. Fischer bought his mother a roll of Chinese brocade material and a bed-jacket.

Eisenhower Receives Jewish Appeal Award

WASHINGTON (UP)—The United Jewish Appeal presented its first Humanitarian Achievement Award to President Eisenhower today "for his help to survivors of Nazism" during World War II.
The award was an ancient clay lamp "from the land of the Bible" recovered during archeological excavations in Israel.
William Rosenwald, general chairman, and 11 other national officers of the Appeal made the presentation at the White House "to commemorate the 10th anniversary of the liberation of the victims of Nazi tyranny."
They cited Mr. Eisenhower for his "inspiring and unforgettable role in that great event."
Mr. Eisenhower said he was delighted to receive the award on behalf of the Allied forces.
"It was a tremendous privilege and a great change from the killing of war to turn your armies to saving human lives and human dignity," he said.
"I sincerely trust that all those people are now living in health and happiness or at least under conditions that are those of self-respect and decency."
A citation read by Rosenwald said in part:
"You led the Allied forces to victory, threw down the gates of the concentration camps and helped to save from extermination the remnant of the once-great Jewish populations of Europe."
"By your sympathetic understanding of the problems involved and by your effective action, you set a pattern of humane and helpful treatment. Your example prevailed in the American zones of occupation and served to revive and restore the newly liberated Jews of central Europe and those who sought haven there."
UJA will open a two-day national conference Saturday to plan its 1955 nationwide drive for funds. It describes itself "the major American agency providing funds for distressed Jews overseas and immigrants to Israel."
Property Owners Ask Supreme Court to Reconsider Appeal
WASHINGTON AP — Twenty-nine property owners seeking to block the proposed tri-state toll highway in Illinois have asked the Supreme Court to reconsider their appeal.
The high court is scheduled to act on their request Monday. At its last meeting, the Supreme Court upheld a decision by a Special three-judge federal court in Chicago which ruled that Illinois Toll Highways Act of 1953 is constitutional.

Seven Dead, 49 Missing As Storm Lashes Seas Off Northern Japan

TOKYO (UP) — At least seven persons were dead and 49 others missing today in a storm which lashed the seas off northern Japan the past week.

A lone survivor of the vessel Kiyoshi Maru, which sank in the storm, said the six other crewmen went down with the ship. Coast guard officials reported also that one fisherman was killed and 49 disappeared from a fleet of fishing boats that sank.

Warren G. Harding was the first President of the United States to broadcast by radio.

Notice To Dealers In Automobiles

Sealed bids will be received until June 11 at the office of the county clerk, Saline County court house, on two new automobiles for the county sheriff's department.

To be traded in will be one or both of the 1951 Oldsmobile and the 1954 Pontiac now in use by the department.

Bids should be based on the following things to be on the new cars: Interceptor motor, changing of the two-way radio system from the old to the new car, revolving flasher light installed on top, sheriff's department signs painted on the car, back-up lights installed, spotlight installed, and must have heavy duty generators, automatic transmission and airfoam cushions. The cars should be four-door vehicles.

The county reserves the right to reject one or both bids.

AL ABNER

back in Dogpatch, he sold his business for expenses to come to Washington to return it. Now broke, he was resigned to waiting and starving until his appointment came up in 1984, when an alert reporter for this paper found him.

Hearing of this unparalleled story of patriotism and honesty, the White House has moved his appointment up 29 years, to tomorrow at noon.

House Advances Broyles Bills to Passage Stage

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—The Broyles anti-subversive bills today were one step away from final legislative passage.

The House Thursday advanced the Senate-approved bills to passage stage. The bills would require loyalty oaths from state employees and make membership or affiliation with subversive groups a felony.

The House Thursday also passed 95-27, and sent to the Senate a bill to increase the size of the state police force from 500 to 600 men.

But the lower chamber handed a rebuff to a bill to give Chicago a public exposition and convention hall. The measure ran into a filibuster and then failed to get enough votes for passage and its sponsors had to postpone it.

Rep. Paul A. Ziegler (D-Carmi), list and possibly the organizations named.

Rep. G. William Horsley passed

Hunt Ex-Convict For Kidnaping, Attacking Girl

PAULS VALLEY, Okla. (AP)—Authorities conducted a statewide search today for a scar-faced ex-convict who kidnaped and raped a 13-year-old girl.

Blue-eyed Emilea Long was found in Duncan, Okla., Thursday after being kidnaped from her home here Wednesday night.

Emilea, whose parents are divorced, was apparently kidnaped on a baby-sitter hoax.

Her mother, Mrs. Edith Pickel, said a man about 46 years old with a scarred face entered the cafe where she worked Wednesday night and said he was looking for a baby-sitter. Mrs. Pickel said she sent him to the home of her ex-husband, E. W. Long, where her daughters, Edna, 16, and Emilea were staying.

Authorities said the older girl was not at home and Long was asleep. Emilea left with the stranger in a car, they said.

Father of Former Grid Player Victim Of 'Purse Snatching'

CHICAGO (AP)—Zygmunt Czarobski, president of the Calumet Federal Savings and Loan Assn., fell victim to Chicago's biggest "purse snatching" in many a year Thursday.

Czarobski was talking to a friend on the street and carrying a paper-wrapped bundle of checks and currency totalling $42,000. A speedy bandit snatched the bundle from his grasp and ran off, easily outdistancing pursuers.

Czarobski is the father of Zygmunt (Zibby) Czarobski, onetime Notre Dame All-American guard.

because of frequent changes in the House sponsor of the Broyles bills, successfully proposed an amendment to take the U. S. attorney general's list of subversive organizations from the bill making subversive activities a felony.

Turn Down Amendments

Critics of the bill had said the inclusion of the long list would make the measure "unworkable" an amendment requiring that written charges would have to be filed against a state employee before the employee could be discharged for subversive activities.

The House turned down three amendments by Rep. Alan J. Dixon (D-Bellefonte), one of the chief foes of the bill. One of the changes would have substituted the oath now required of all state employees under the Constitution for the loyalty oath now in the bill.

Another rejected Dixon amendment would have required that a person be convicted of advocating overthrow of the government or associating with subversive groups before he could be fired. The bill as it stands now does not require conviction.

House Approves Adding 100 To State Police

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—The Illinois House Thursday passed by a 94-27 vote a bill to add another 100 state policemen to the present 500-man force.

House Speaker Warren L. Wood (R-Plainfield) left the rostrum in the heated debate on the measure to speak for it.

"The state policemen do a terrific job for their state and we should have many more than 600," Wood said. "You can pass laws until we run out of paper to regulate traffic but until we have the men to enforce them we might as well save our time."

Rep. Paul Powell (D-Vienna) opposed the bill. "I don't propose to vote for even one more policeman until their duties are defined," he said. Powell mentioned use of state policemen as poll watchers and to act as chauffeurs on a Toll Road Commission trip to the east.

Rep. Robert R. Romano (D-Chicago) also called for restricting the use of state policemen to highway patrolling. "They are now engaged in patrolling taverns and other places which should be under the jurisdiction of local police," Romano said, adding that the 500 man force would be enough for traffic patrolling.

Rep. Hugh Green (R-Jacksonville) answered that "the danger of spelling out the duties of state policemen is far greater than the danger of overstepping their authority."

It's the new kind of hardtop—The 4-Door Riviera!

A HARDTOP is a car that looks like a Convertible with the top up—but has a solid steel roof overhead — and no center posts in the side window areas.

Up until just recently, it could be built in volume only with two doors—not more—because it would take wholly new structural principles to hinge another set of doors without floor-to-roof center posts.

But Buick came up with those new structural principles and is now building—in volume—hardtops with four doors.

You see one pictured here. It's the 4-Door Riviera. And it's taking the country by storm...

Because here, at long last, is an automobile with the sleek and sporty styling of a true hardtop—but with separate doors for rear-seat passengers, plus the added room of a full-size Buick Sedan.

On top of that, this beauty is all Buick—with the buoyant ride of Buick's all-coil springing—the wallowing might of Buick's record-high V8 power—the whip-quick getaway and sizable gas savings of Buick's spectacular Variable Pitch Dynaflo.*

It's Early, But Another Spurt By Dodgers Could Wreck National L.

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Some baseball men contend that the surprising Cubs have the pitching, balance and bench to keep moving.

But more are apprehensive about the Dodgers going on another protracted winning binge. The Brooks opened with 10 in a row, duplicated the performance before the enemy could catch its breath. It's early, but another such winning streak could crack the race wide open, do irreparable damage to National League attendance.

The clubs supposed to run at the Superbas — the Giants and Braves — haven't, and there is little indication that they will.

The Polo Grounds banked too heavily on their luck of last season. Misfortune continued to follow the Milwaukee club like a faithful hound. Eddie Mathews was back in uniform after an emergency appendectomy in remarkably short time, but when Johnny Podres underwent the same operation in 1954 it was nine weeks before he could pitch and the young Brooklyn lefthander wasn't nearly as effective throughout the remainder of the route.

Brooklyn lapped the field without exerting its maximum capabilities. Junior Gilliam and Jackie Robinson have just started to hit. Duke Snider and Gil Hodges have been below their potential at the plate.

"The Brooklyn attack is solid from top to the pitcher," points out Stanley Musial of the Cardinals, "and most people completely overlook the fact that the Dodgers have a tremendous advantage playing 77 games at Ebbets Field, where the short fence business extends from foul line to foul line."

"Only one Giant could make the Dodgers," testifies the Pirates' Fred Haney, "and Walter Alston would think at least twice before switching Snider to left field to make room for Willie Mays and all his extraordinary range in center."

"To fully realize how tough it is to get the Dodgers out, you only have to consider the fact that the Dodgers," testifies the Pirates' Fred Haney, "and Walter Alston would think at least twice before switching Snider to left field to make room for Willie Mays and all his extraordinary range in center."

"I've never seen Robinson for an instant when he wasn't giving it everything he had," he adds.

When Don Newcombe, Podres and Carl Erskine are pitching, there isn't an oasis in the Brooklyn batting order where the rival pitcher can rest and doctor his wounds. Podres has always hit around 300. Erskine has driven in five important runs this season. Big Newcombe is such a formidable left-hand swatter that he is going to be used as a pinchhitter. Newk drove in the first run off Ronnie Kline of the Pirates with a single the other Sunday afternoon. Then he belted a home run over the scoreboard in right field and another into the center field seats.

The bulk of the 26,711 paying guests remained until he grounded out in the eighth inning with the Dodgers leading, 8-3.

It reminded Pittsburgh baseball writers of the years when Pirate fans stuck it out until Ralph Kiner took his final swing.

The big difference is that Don Newcombe isn't swinging for a losing club.

East St. Louis, North Chicago, Schurz, Joliet in Baseball Finals

PEORIA, Ill. — East St. Louis met North Chicago and Chicago Schurz faced Joliet today to decide the teams which will fight it out for the Illinois high school baseball championship tonight.

The four teams battled their way into the semifinals Thursday behind a series of brilliant pitching performances—a no-hitter, two two-hitters, and a three-hitter.

Joliet whipped Galesburg, 2-1. Chicago Schurz blasted Anna-Jonesboro, 11-1. North Chicago whitewashed Decatur, 1-0, and East St. Louis took Peoria Central, 4-2.

Willie Thomson's performance for North Chicago was the stand-out of the day as he faced only 24 batters and allowed not a single hit.

North Chicago, making its first appearance in the tourney in its first year of baseball, could also thank Thomson for its two runs. He batted in both of them.

North Chicago's semi-final opponent, East St. Louis, triumphed over Peoria Central by virtue of a neat three-hitter hurled by Don Choate. Choate got in trouble only once, in the third inning when he walked the bases full. He then tried to pick Gene Carr off third. Third baseman Ed Schmulbach threw away the ball in the rundown, and Peoria Central's two runs came in.

The pitching excellence continued as Joliet's Ken Glasgow struck out a near-record 19 men and allowed only two hits in a 10-inning game against Galesburg.

The game ended when Jim Macy beat out a slow roller down the

Job Outlook Good For Agricultural Jobs

URBANA, Ill. —In the next five years there will be two jobs for every agricultural graduate, according to experts at the University of Illinois.

Openings will exist for extension specialists, salesmen, sales managers, agricultural engineers and especially vocational agriculture teachers, according to H. W. Hannah, associate dean of the university's agricultural school.

Hannah said the university has the equipment and facilities for training 50 per cent more agricultural students than are now enrolled.

Average yearly salaries for agricultural graduates engaged in educational work range from $3,700 to $9,000, he said. Annual salaries for agricultural grads in business and industry have been averaging $8,300 and those in farming and farm management between $5,500 and $8,500.

Duke Snider Hits Homer, Two Singles as Dodgers Rout Milwaukee, 13-2

By United Press

Duke Snider figures he "loused up" his baseball swing by playing golf two weeks ago, but if he keeps teeing off on enemy pitchers, he'll put the Dodgers within a nine iron shot of the pennant in no time.

For the second straight day, Snider battered par on the Ebbets Field course Tuesday with his 16th homer and a pair of singles in a 13-2 rout of the Braves that moved Brooklyn 7 1-2 games ahead of the straggling National league field.

Thursday's performance by the Duke, coupled with the three homers he clouted against Milwaukee Wednesday, is pretty fair hitting, especially for a guy who insists:

"I haven't really felt right at the plate since I went out and played 18 holes of golf while we were out west last month."

Going Like Sixty

Snider had an 85 on the day he refers to but he's been going like 60 for the Dodgers, boosting his batting average from .296 to .329 within the space of a week. His two-run homer off Bob Buhl helped the Dodgers to a 3-0 lead in the third inning and then he singled twice in the eighth as the Dodgers poured across 10 runs. Billy Loes was nicked for homers by pinch hitter Ed Mathews and Johnny Logan but he had easy sailing for his sixth win.

The Phillies defeated the second place Cubs, 8-4, with the help of Andy Seminick's grand-slam homer in a five-run first inning. South-paw Curt Simmons, who yielded Ernie Bank's 13th homer, was the winning pitcher although he had to be rescued by Bib Miller in the seventh. Warren Hacker was the loser.

Johnny Antonelli of the Giants got back in the winning column with a 6-2 decision over the Red Sox. The Giants pooled five of their nine hits for three runs in the third inning, a frame in which Willie Mays doubled home one run and Sid Gordon doubled in two more. Mays also connected for his 14th homer in the seventh while Don Mueller hit his second homer. Ted Kluszewski collected three of Cincinnati's six hits, including his 15th four-bagger.

Pirates Wallop Cardinals
Big Dale Long drove in five runs with a homer and two singles to lead the Pirates to a 12-3 victory over the Cardinals. In all, Pittsburgh blasted five St. Louis pitchers for 17 hits, including a homer by Frank Thomas. Max Surkont was the winner while Harvey Had-dick, the ace of the Cardinal mound staff last year, suffered his eighth loss.

Rookie Herb Score of Cleveland fanned 10 batters in beating Baltimore, 9-3, but the Indians remained three games behind the American league leading Yankees who rolled to their 19th victory in 22 games with a 12-6 decision over Kansas City.

Score's 10 strikeouts, all of which were registered in the first four innings, gave him a total of 92, seven more than Bob Turley of the Yankees. The Indians gave Score all the runs he needed in the second when they scored six times with the aid of Dave Pope's grand-slam homer.

Homer Parade

Gil McDougald, Elston Howard and Hank Bauer took advantage of Kansas City's "short porch" in left field, each smashing a homer to help Bob Grim register his fourth conquest. The Yankees sewed up the contest with a six-run barrage in the seventh. Jim Finigan homered for the Athletics.

Mel Parnell of the Red Sox was beaten, 4-2, by the White Sox in his first appearance of the season. Sideline with an injured knee since spring training, Parnell gave up two runs in the second inning, and another in the third before leaving after pitching the sixth. George Kell homered off reliever Tom Hurd. Virgil Trucks registered his fifth victory.

Detroit rallied for three runs in the sixth inning with the help of a two run homer by Jackie Phillips to beat Washington. Steve Gromek was the winner although he had to leave the game because of a back injury in the eighth. Pete Runnels homered for the Senators.

RICH STAKES

If you have both double and single beds, it's often hard to pull out the correct number of the correct kind of sheet from a stack of linen. If a small symbol is embroidered or marked on the sheet corners, it's an easier proposition.

The Goods May Be Wet But Bottle Must Be Dry

BUFFALO, N. Y. — Dehydrating empty bottles sounds like a useless pastime, but it is of prime importance at a pharmaceutical manufacturing plant here.

Moisture is the arch enemy of most medicines. So (Arner Co.) chemists thoroughly dry bottles and vials before they are filled with pills, tablets or capsules. The empty bottles are placed in ovens for definite periods of time at controlled temperatures.

Even the dabs of protective cotton used in packing medicaments are also specially dried when employed with drugs particularly vulnerable to moisture.

Only one state—Tennessee—reported a rise in coal production in 1954, a total of 6,154,000 tons, against 5,467,000 tons in 1953.

Cole stepped back. The flicking side of his right hand caught them all off guard. The big pistol glinted dully in the dying light.

"Jesse, get out. Get out before I kill you."

Jesse's guns were holstered at his sides. He still had his rifle in his hands from the scouting of the farm. He made no move for the pistols, did not lift the carbine.

"Turn around," said Cole, "and walk out."

Jesse looked at Frank.

"I'm coming," said Frank, and stood up.

"Anybody else?"

It was Cole's turn now, his eyes never leaving Jesse. Nobody answered, nobody moved.

"Once you're through that door," he said, "don't never let me see you again."

It was the last Cole Younger ever saw of Jesse James.

"I ought to have killed him. I ought to have killed him a long, long time ago—"

A hundred yards from the farmhouse, the brush closed behind Frank and Jesse. As it did, the latter whirled on his older brother, eyes blinking furiously.

"You ninnys, you near fixed it for sure!"

"Fixed what? What are you talking about?" Frank stammered his genuine bewilderment.

"The grays, you idiot. You told them about the grays!"

"What if I did, Jess? What are you getting at?" Frank's puzzlement held for another brief moment. Even as it did, he had his answer in the cold spread of Jesse's grin.

"There's two horses and there's you and me. It's why I come back from the barn at all—to tell you that we was going out, just the two of us. Cole only made it easy, that's all."

Frank nodded. There was no more room for words. Nothing more to be said. Jesse had said it all. The latter, not even waiting for his brother's nod, had already turned and started through the brush again. Frank followed him. Jesse always had a plan. You could take it or leave it.

The hue and cry after the Northfield fugitives, which had almost died down following the discovery of their tied horses at German Lake, burst into full clamor again with the news of the theft of the two gray horses near Mankato and the subsequent, successful dash of those two grays and their riders through a picket-line post on the Crystal Lake Road west of the latter town.

The four outlaws remaining in the abandoned Mankato farmhouse left that refuge some time during the morning of Thursday, Sept. 14, within hours after Jesse and Frank had fled it.

Early the following Thursday morning, Sept. 21, they were sighted crossing the dairy pasture of the Suborn farm, near Madelia, by the farmer-owner's 17-year-old son, Oscar.

Madelia is a bare 25 miles south-east of Mankato.

Twenty-five miles in seven days and nights! Averaging but a little better than three miles in each 24 hours, and this over a region again swarming with the hornet's nest of official posses and rural pickets stirred up by Jesse's desertion. Yet they were not once seen until that fatal morning outside Madelia!

Then, following Oscar Suborn's reported sighting of the fugitives, posses from Madelia and nearby St. James surrounded the farm. Four hours after the first alarm, 200 men were converging on Hanska Slough, the latest reported sighting of the fleeing outlaws.

Hanska Slough was in reality a backed-up side channel of the Watonwan River. Below the slough the channel spread out in a shallow, breast-deep swamp pond called Hanska Lake. Below the pond, the channel proper of the Watonwan resumed.

First cry of fox was raised by the posse of Madelia's Sheriff Glispin. Prying along the west shore of Lake Hanska, he suddenly saw the fugitives struggling along thru the mudflats about 20 yards out from his own, the west bank of the lake. He waved his men to take cover in the reeds, cautiously studied the four outlaws.

All of them were unkempt and filthy, with heavy, rain-wet beards. Their clothes were shredded and ripped and the sheriff at once noted the absence of the famous linen dusters. The largest of the bandits, apparently their leader, was walking in front of the others, leaning heavily on a crutch-like stick. The two following the first man were nearly as large as he. One of them appeared badly wounded, for the other was supporting him bodily. Glispin now rose up out of the reeds and shouted the order to halt. He might as well have ordered the rain to cease falling. The bandits, waved on by the big man in the lead, ran for the shelter of a low mudbank. They got safely behind it, and the silence which ensued was more unnerving than any gunfire. Sheriff Glispin took the opportunity to re-evaluate his position.

His posse was small, only five men. The mudflats were naked, offering no cover for an approach toward the waiting outlaws. The time for the kill, the Madelia officer at once decided, was not yet. His low orders to his men were as quick as they were wise: "Pull back, boys. We'd better wait for some of the others to come up."

In his terse, later explanation of the retreat, Glispin only remarked, "They were all mighty desperate-looking men, though the fourth one wasn't near as big as the others."

The Madelia sheriff might well have added that it was a chore beyond the capacities of most men to be as big as a Younger.

AROUND SPRINGFIELD

Portraits from Stratton Office to Be Moved to New "Hall of Governors"

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (Special to The Daily Register)—Portraits of former Illinois governors, which now adorn walls of Gov. William G. Stratton's state house offices, are to be moved to a new "Hall of Governors" when the state takes over occupancy of the new $11,500,000 state office building across from the Capitol in August. Details of the "Hall" are incomplete but are being worked out by the state house commission.

Meanwhile a painting of former Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson by Trafford Klotz, has been hung on the wall of the room where Miss Marion P. Keever, executive secretary to the Governor has her office. The $2,500 painting was put up by state house employees last month. It shows Stevenson sitting at his Governor's desk with the State flag flattened out behind him.

The hanging of the painting was taken in stride. There was no formal ceremony. Governor Stratton came out of his office to watch two state house workmen put it up. When he leaves at the end of a workday he can see it if he looks up. It is between paintings of the late Govs. Edward F. Dunne, a Democrat, and Len Small, a Republican.

Portraits of the late Gov. Henry Horner and former Gov. Dwight H. Green still face visitors as they come into Miss Keever's office or pass through it to keep an appointment with Stratton. Decision to have a "Hall of Governors" was reached because of the crowded look the squeezing in of the paintings of more than 30 governors gives it. A "Hall" will provide roomier space for further hangings.

Reps. Paul Simon, D., Troy and Alan J. Dixon, D., Belleville, are sponsors of a bill which they believe will help to give voters a greater opportunity to participate in national political conventions in naming nominees for president and vice president. It provides that candidates' petitions for delegate have a blank space in which the delegate would write his presidential choice but could leave it blank. Simon said it will enable the people to know whether a delegate is for a certain presidential candidate or whether he is just being cagey, adding that "it doesn't necessarily pin a delegate down but it certainly will help to give the voter a chance to support the delegate pledged to a certain candidate, thus giving him a stronger voice in the nominating of a presidential candidate."

Governor Stratton's liaison with the legislature is expected to be bolstered shortly by the naming of Conrad Becker, Red Bud, former state treasurer, as an administrative assistant. Becker, now an assistant state treasurer, would replace Vernon R. Forgue, who handled legislative matters two years ago. Forgue is now state purchasing agent.

Rep. Ed Schaefer, D., Nokomis, has about made up his mind he'll depend on his own judgment on legislation because of confusion from leading letters from constituents. He cites an instance of letters on the Broyles anti-communism bills.

"Most unions urge a vote against the bills but the American Legion is for them," said Schaefer. "What I would like to know is, how do the union members who also are Legionnaires, feel? Then the Legion auxiliary asks us to support them but the League of Women Voters says "no." How do the women who belong to the league and the auxiliary feel?"

The 69th General Assembly probably will kill all records for the number of bills introduced. As of last week 1,716 bills had been offered, 1,047 in the Senate, and 669 in the House. The record is 2,044 set in 1951. Of this 1,238 were in the House and 786 in the Senate. They do not include scores of resolutions.

Governor Stratton has signed into a law a bill by Sen. Glen O. Jones, R., Raleigh, to limit commitments to the Vandalia State Penal farm to persons convicted in a court of record. The farm has been criticized in the legislature as a "haven for bums." Rep. Carl Prehls, D., Pana, made the assertion. The amended law will restrict commitments.

Reps. Harold W. Widmer, R., Freeport, and John King, R., Wheaton, have been named to a House Pensions subcommittee to hold hearings on a bill to boost teachers pensions $200 a year. Widmer will head the subcommittee. Rep. Otis L. Miller, R., Belleville, was named to a House Liquor subcommittee to hold hearings on a bill requiring 12 ounces in beer containers.

Mail Scorpions If You Must—But In Metal Boxes

WASHINGTON (AP) — If you must mail live scorpions kindly enclose them hereafter in metal boxes. That comes straight from the House Post Office Committee which possibly next will be thinking of some way to save the mailman from dogs.

Lately, scorpions are what have been bothering him most. Sleet, rain and snow may not be able to deter him from his appointed round, like it says on the post office building, but the sting of a scorpion can lay him out in the hospital, though only rarely the morgue.

The fact is, said the Post Office Committee, the little Arachnids have a sting in their tails that is out of this world. And lately people have taken to dropping them into the box in old envelopes, match boxes, and other odds and ends that leave the mailman holding the bag but wishing he weren't.

Reason for the upswing in scorpion traffic is that somebody has developed a vaccine to combat scorpion stings. To make the stuff they have to have scorpions. They ran out recently and sent out a call for more. The response, the committee said, has been fine. So fine, in fact, that members approved a bill, already passed by the Senate, authorizing the post master general to put his foot down on scorpion mail except where a metal container is used.
